

Co-Parenting Expense Agreement Template

A one-page agreement for how shared child expenses work day to day. Fill in each line together, sign, and keep a copy each. If you have a court order about expenses, this agreement fills in details the order leaves open and never changes what the order sets.

Parents and children

Parent A: _____

Parent B: _____

Children: _____

What is shared

Uninsured medical, dental and vision costs: _____

School fees and supplies: _____

Childcare: _____

Extracurricular activities (agreed in advance): _____

Clothing over this amount: _____

Other categories: _____

How it works

Split (50/50 or percentages): _____

Pre-approval needed for any single expense over: _____

Requests sent within this many days of the cost, with a receipt: _____

Confirmed shares paid within this many days of the request: _____

Where requests and payments are recorded: _____

How payment is sent (for example Venmo, check, cash): _____

Disagreements and review

If a request is disputed, we will: _____

We will review this agreement every (months): _____

Signatures

Parent A signature and date: _____

Parent B signature and date: _____

Disclaimer

This template is general educational information, not legal advice. Your court order or existing parenting plan controls, and many courts require their own forms. This material has not been reviewed by a lawyer. Consult a licensed family-law attorney for your situation.

Downloaded from <https://sharedanchor.com/guides/co-parenting-expense-agreement-setup>